

Albert Emanuel II

Born 27 August 1923, New York City
Raised in New York and surroundings
Attended Lawrence Smith School, NYC until ~1929
From 1929 to 1933, attended Sandroyd Grammar School, England, while parents in residence at Rockingham Castle, Northamptonshire
Master of foxhounds, Rockingham Castle, early 1930s
Return to NYC and Lawrence Smith School, 1934-1938
Kent School, 1938-1942
Cornell University, entered 1942 and enlisted almost immediately
Turned down for flight training owing to poor eyesight, trained as aircraft mechanic in Boca Raton, Florida (where he met his future wife); Sebring, Florida; Yale University
First Lieutenant, U.S. Air Force, in charge of aircraft maintenance in Okinawa, 1943-1945 (mostly B-29 bombers)
Married Catherine Marny van Nymegen Schonegevel, 15 September, 1947
Rasied three boys: Barton Woodruff, Kerry Andrew and Geoffrey Scott
After marriage lived in Ithaca, New York; Richmond, Indiana; Cincinnati, Ohio; Villanova, PA; Wynnwood, PA; Palm Beach, Florida, Spruce Head, Maine; Vero Beach, Florida; Kilmarnock, Virginia, and Topsham, Maine
Died in Rockland, Maine, October 27th 2007

Albert with his mother, 1923

As a young boy

In 1939

In Okinawa, WWII

Portrait, probably while at Cornell

At Chi Phi fraternity, Cornell. Best friend, John
Babcock, at left with pitcher

At far right, with friends, probably just after the war

With Charlotte van Nymegen and new bride, Marny

With Marny in Ithaca, 1947

With Marny and first son, Woody, around 1949

With third son, Geoff, in Villanova, 1957

With Toni, Tom van Nymegen's second wife, Palm Beach, 1960s

With niece Marion Vandersteel, father-in-law Dionys van Nymegen Schonegevel, and nephew Stoddard Vandersteel, Spruce Head, Maine, 1966

Sailing with good friend Frank Akers, near Mt. Desert Island, Maine, 1970s

With John and Nancy Babcock, on board
Kolibri, mid 1970s

With Marny, 1970s

At 54th wedding anniversary,
Topsham, Maine, September 2001

Albert in Rockland Hospital,
August, 2007