

*Your name confused by the name James Wall
in the Bible it was written James Watt may you could find out the year of James Watt was born & died on those dates*

Handwriting above by Marny Emanuel, typing by Marion Schonegevel (?)

James Wall born 1736 died 1819, married Margaret Miller his cousin in 1763. One son James born 1769 died 1848 and one daughter Ann born 1872.

James Wall II had one daughter Ann born 1793 who married
Thomas Scott in 1813, they have two daughters, Ann born 1829 and Margaret born 1819, this

Ann Scott married

in 1846

born 1824, died 1862

in Greenock, Scotland

William Hamilton Martin

Artist: Portrait Painter

born 1824, died 1856

in Hardeen, Sc.

Two children

William Hamilton

and

Margaret Scott

born 1850, died 1917

born 1851, died 1872

in Hamilton, Scotland

in Hamilton, Scotland

William Hamilton Martin went to Holland in 1865 and worked as apprentice at his uncle's shipyard in Rotterdam, named David Christie. In 1873 he was made Managing Engineer and Naval Architect of the Royal Shipbuilding Yard "De Schelde"
in Flushing Holland which was then established by King William III. He was an engineer "by the grace of God" made many important inventions and was considered the most outstanding genius since James Watt of Greenock, Scotland, who was a renown inventor and the grandfather of his mother.
(not quite certain how related.)

William Hamilton Martin married Maria Dieke Vermeulen in 1886 in Middelburg Zeeland Holland. Maria D. Vermeulen died 1932, is the daughter of Jacobus Vermeulen and Catherine Poley, daughter of Henri Poley Huguenot and Catherine Sigri who's father was an Irishman, Britain Naval Attache, stationed in Flushing, Holland. Out of this marriage of W.H. Martin and Maria D. Vermeulen six children are born. Mary Amalia born 1887, William Hamilton born 1888, Thomas Scott born 1890, died 1911, Ann Marion born 1895, Margaret Scott born 1897 and Lucia Beatrice born 1900, named after Lucie Dreyfus. Mary Amalia marries Hugo Benjamin Burger in 1910, one son Hugo V.B., one daughter Mary. William Hamilton marries Lily Howell from Glasgow, Scotland, she dies in 1925, he remarries Ruth Fonz London, no children. Ann M. marries Dionys van Nymegen son of Miter van Nymegen Schonegeval and Ltsk Daedes Browning, they have three children, Clara, Dionys and Tieter who immigrated to America in 1912. Dionys and Ann Marion have three children, Thomas Daniel, William Dionys and Catherine Marny. Dionys was in Royal Netherlands Navy from 1900-1919, marries in 1916, joins Royal Dutch Shell after I World War, lives in Sumatra Venezuela, Borneo, again Sumatra, Patagonia Curacao, West Indies, boys go to America for education in 1936 and become citizens of that country. Th. D. born in 1917, Will D. in 1919 both in Holland, Flushing and Hilversum. Marny born in 1923 in Venice Alfes Maritime France. W.D. changes his name to William Vandersteel in 1940 when taking an oath of American citizenship. Thomas D. curtails his name to Van Nymegen when he became citizen. Thomas marries Charlotte Mols from Buffalo, her father, a Dutch born American, one daughter born 1944 named Marny Ann, born New York City, LeProy Hospital (Dr. Nysenbeck). William marries Betsey Stottard from Woodmere, Long Island, N.Y. Sept. 15, 1945. Margaret Scott Hamilton marries Allery, Englishman in Australia, divorces. Lucie Beatrice is a Roman Catholic convert, in 1922 enters convent of the Benedictines in Belgium (Maredral), in 1936 then changes to a Trappist Convert in Chunay, Belgium in 1939.

Son born to William Vandersteel-Bety on March 11, 1948, name: Stoddard.

Second daughter born to Tom-Charlotte VanNymegen Feb. of 1948; Shari.

Stoddard was baptised in Woodmere Long Island, Episcopal Church.

Catherine Marny (age 24) marries Albert Emanuel II (age 25) on September 15, 1947 at the Episcopal Church, Port Washington, Long Island. Albert Emanuel is the son of Victor Emanuel of New York City.

Catherine Marny takes her oath as citizen of the United States of America on November 7, 1947.

Their first son is born on October, 10, 1948 in New York City, at the New York Hospital. Dr. Douglas Stuart. Name: Barton Woodruff (named after grand-aunt of Barton, founder of Red Cross.) Baptised Church of the Messiah C. Islip, L.I.

Born to William Vandersteel and his wife Betsey Stoddard Vandersteel on February 1, 1951 a daughter, Marion, in Manhasset, Long Island.

Born to Thomas Nymegen and his wife Charlotte Mols, a son Peter Kim on December 10, 1954 in

Born to Albert Emanuel and Marny, his wife, a son Kerry Andrew on April 21, 1955 in Cincinnati, Ohio. (Good Samaritan Hospital)

Born to William Vandersteel (William Dionys van N. Schonegevek) and Betsey Stoddard, a son, William Hunt (Hunt being the maiden name of Betsey's mother) on February 21, 1956 (at North Country Comm. Hospital, Glen Cove), 16 Bonnie Weights Rd., Manhasset, Long Island, N.Y.

Born to Albert Emanuel II and his wife Marny, a son Geoffrey Scott (Scott being the name of Marny's grandfather's mother) on July 19, 1957 at 2:10 A.M. at the Baldwin Hospital in Baldarn, Pennsylvania. Marny's old Nannie, Olga Reynolds who came to her parents in Palegonia in 1926 when Marny was 3 years old. She travelled with us (Schonegevels) to Europe, East Indies, Holland, West India and returned to her home in Patagonia in 1939. In 1955 we and our three children, Tom, Dick and Marny paid a return ticket by plane and she came to visit us all in America for 9 months. She came again on Marny & Al's invitation to help Marny with her baby Geoffrey Scott on July 1957. She is loved and esteemed by the whole family and somehow is part of us! So I did want to mention her. She has a sheep farm in Patagonia.